BATTLE OF KHARTUM.

*A.O. 134.

The Commander-in-Chief is directed by the Secretary of State for War to convey to Major-General Sir Herbert Kitchener, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., Sirdar of the Egyptian Army, and General Commanding the Forces in the Sudan, the warm congratulations of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, upon the conduct of the campaign which, ending with the brilliantly successful action before Khartum on the 2nd September, has resulted in the reconquest of the valley of the Nile from the 2nd Cataract to the Sobat river.

The General Officer Commanding in Egypt, while eulogising the appearance, bearing, and soldierlike conduct of the British troops who fought under the skilful leadership of Sir Herbert Kitchener, brings to notice the arduous labours which devolved on the officers of the staff employed at Cairo and Alexandria in equipping and sending forward the forces which gained such a signal victory over the courageous but barbarous tribes who for 14 years have devastated the Sudan. He omits, however, all reference to himself. The Commander-in-Chief has much pleasure in placing on record his high sense of the self-abnegation and assiduous labour exhibited by Lieutenant-General Sir Francis Grenfell, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., since he assumed the command in Lower Egypt.

The highest praise is due not only to Sir Herbert Kitchener for the courage, skill, and persistent determination that he has shown for many years, but also to his staff, and to all the Egyptian Army. The rank and file in the army of His Highness the Khedive showed a spirit which reflects the greatest credit on those officers and non-commissioned officers who have so raised the standard of their discipline and military efficiency, that they are now worthy to fight alongside European troops; they exhibited not only steadiness in action, but remarkable endurance during two years of prolonged and most arduous labour in constructing a railroad of 550 miles, and doing other pioneer services, without which the success which has added to the lustre of the British and Egyptian arms could not have been obtained.

WOLSELEY, F.-M.,
Commander-in-Chief.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but some beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average four candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.
